

EL NUEVO MUNDO

THE NEW WORLD

an interactive workshop for years 5 & 6

Based on our publication El Nuevo Mundo, pupils take part in a series of interactive activities to experience what life might be like for children living in the shanty towns of Lima. Incorporating drama, storytelling, team building games and group discussion, pupils gain a deeper insight into the experiences of children living in Project Peru's refuge.

'The children had a brilliant time and were so engaged. Every single child enjoyed it and the teachers picked up some great workshop ideas too.'

Hannah Gregson, Year 5 Teacher, Springfield Primary School, Sunbury On Thames

'The workshops were thought-provoking, moving and very professionally planned; I absolutely recommend Project Peru.'

Sam Jaspal, Head Teacher, Haresfoot School, Hertfordshire

This workshop helps to support Project Peru, a totally voluntary, UK registered charity offering food, clothes, shelter, education and fun to children who live in extreme poverty in the desert shanty towns of Lima.
